INTRODUCTION TO MODERN APPRENTICESHIPS

Modern Apprenticeships in Scotland mix industry recognised qualifications with on the job training to give you the skills that you need in everything from production and operations to more technical and commercial areas.

Modern Apprenticeships include a Scottish Vocational Qualification (SVQ).

From Skills Development Scotland

Not only are they nationally recognised, but they are also government-backed, work-based training programmes which are specifically tailored to meet the skill needs of employers.

WHY YOU SHOULD DO A MODERN APPRENTICESHIP

There are many benefits to doing a Modern Apprenticeship:

- ▶ You receive funded professional training
- ▶ Training is on-the-job
- ▶ You do not need previous education
- ▶ You learn at your own pace
- ▶ You still earn a wage whilst you learn
- ▶ You gain a recognised qualification (SVQ)

WHAT OPTIONS ARE AVAILABLE?

A Modern Apprenticeship Level 2 qualification is a good option for employees who do not have a professional qualification in food and drink, and the majority of their role is not at a management level.

For those at management level, a Level 3 option is the better option.
